MONDAY EVENING DECEMBER 3.

HIDEOUS CRIMES .- The Paris o re epond ent of the London Daily Telegraph "One of the most hideous crim - on record in this country promp ed to un juga jest ousy was recently perpetrated in Vienna. A middle aged women mand Maschner, the wife of a respectable wat bunker, sus-pected her husband of inflicity. After drinking the best part of a small bottle of plum brandy she provided berself with a vial of vitriol, and when her husband was fast asleep she poured the contents on the lower part of his body. The man sprang out of his bed, writhing with pain, and screamed for help, when the wretched woman threw more vitriol into his face. The neighbors on breaking open the door found the watchmaker rolling on the floor in un speakable agony. His wife, too, had pour-ed some of the vitriol on the lower part of her own person, boping a dis-with him and escape punishment. Both husbandsaid wife were conveyed to the hospital, where they lie in a critical state. Strange to say, a deed ile in a critical state. Strange to say, a deed in many respects similar—the preceding was committed at a Vienna hotel a f-w days previously, but was bushed up A married woman cam d Bishop was deserted some time ago by her na band, who left the town with another lady. They met by chance in the atreet the other day. The w fe fegued to be reconciled with the husband and induced him to take her for the band, and induced him to take her for the night to a botel. When the man was fast asleep his wife, who had armed berself with a sharp carving knifa, inflicted horrible in juries upon him, and he was taken to the hospital in a critical condition."
